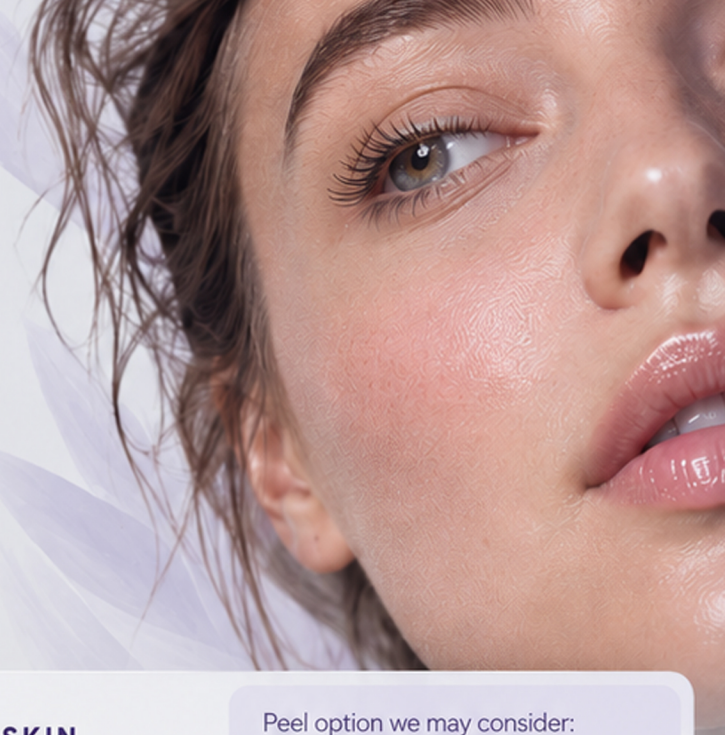
NOT ALL PEELS ARE THE SAME



Different peels can target different concerns. The right peel for you depends on your skin goals, skin type, and current skin condition. Here's a quick guide to help you understand your options.

DULL / ROUGH SKIN

Skin looking tired, lackluster, or feeling a little rough to the touch?

Peel option we may consider:

SENSIE PEEL

Helps refresh and reveal smoother, brighter-looking skin.

DARK SPOTS / UNEVEN TONE

Concerned about discoloration, sun damage, or an uneven-looking complexion?

Peel option we may consider:

PIGMENT & CORRECT PEEL

Targets the look of dark spots and helps promote a more even-looking tone.

BREAKOUTS / CONGESTION

Clogged pores, excess oil, or breakout-prone skin?

Peel option we may consider:

ACNE PEEL

Helps decongest pores and supports a clearer-looking complexion.

FINE LINES / TEXTURE

Looking to improve the appearance of texture, smoothness, and early fine lines?

Peel option we may consider:

ULTRA PEEL

Helps smooth the look of fine lines and texture for a more refreshed appearance.

Want help choosing?

You don't have to figure it out yourself. We can look at your skin, talk about your goals, and help determine which peel option may be appropriate for you.
